March 2022

Easter reminds us we have the sure hope of living forever in heaven, and that's a reason to live joyfully. But that's our future existence. Our present existence is often challenging for us, our loved ones, and our nation. As the old hymn says, "If I falter Lord who cares?" I'd urge you this Easter season to talk with the Lord about these things: to wake each day thanking and praising Him for something—"First song that I sing, praises to my God and King." And then also to speak with Him honestly about the concerns on your mind and heart. Humbly ask Him for help. Build a relationship. "Call on me," He says, "and I will show you great and marvelous things." And of course join us on Sundays for worship. There's power in being together.

Blessings, Pastor Malcolm
